

Breakdown and Price of our Life Coach & Transformation Life Coach Training Course

“Our Training is specially designed for time convenience, with the intent to fully equip you as a Coach, with future reference and step by step structure, while adding great value to your investment.”

We see very little value in any course that provides you with an overload of information, which by the end of the day gives you no reference (unless you pay for a refresher) but instead, leaves you overwhelmed and confused.

Certifying you, as a Life Coach and Transformation Coach, means the world to us. We have made a declaration to ourselves, that we will do our absolute best to serve and help humanity. As the world and life have changed into a battle for survival with no meaning...leaving more and more people unfulfilled, empty, lonely, depressed and sick, we have solemnly committed ourselves to help, guide, equip and transform every Coach whom we certify to the best of our abilities. The responsibility for change lies in us: The Life Coach, Transformation coaches and the Mentor!!

“This means that our Course IS THE BEST, and will give you, THE MOST VALUE for money. We say this with great modesty and truth.”

“Our Course is structured in 2 easy and powerful steps to optimise your learning capacity and ability to master your new skills. You have the choice to pay for everything upfront or to split your two affordable payments. The Choice is yours.”

STEP 1 - Pre-Study: Committing yourself with an easy and fun DVD Pre/Home Study Course 2.0. This is designed for your own convenience and future reference. You just watch the DVD's and read along in your Manual here and there.

*The Pre/Home Study part covers all the Basics, Theory and Fundamentals of Life Coaching, Transformation Coaching and how to utilize Neuro Linguistic Programming into and with Life Coaching. On the DVD's, I explain all the above in an easy and practical way, so that any person can grasp and understand the subjects. P.S. Just note that NLP DOES NOT MAKE YOU A REAL POWERFUL LIFE COACH! You do not have enough skills and strategies to give a person an entire Paradigm (Mind-set) shift. Transformation Life Coaching is much, much more than NLP!!!

STEP 2 – Advanced Practical Training & Certification: Signing up for our Advanced Practical Training & Certification

This is where you will learn and experience our Transformation Coaching System™ hands-on and also learn the step-by-step coaching structure that will enable you to immediately start coaching and transforming people with emotional issues, problems and dis-empowering habits.

“Will I have the time and money to do this course?”

You already have your reasons why you want to become a Life Coach, and now you want the skills and tools to start doing what you love. The only two questions you might be asking yourself right now are:

- “Can I Afford it?”
- “Do I have the Time?”

“We have the Answer and the Solution!”

We asked ourselves: “Is this only about money, or are we doing this from the heart?”

Our mission and purpose are: “Educating, Empowering and Transforming Lives so that people can be equipped to become Successful and Happy in their Careers, Personal Lives, Relationships, Family and Finances!”

We are really proud to share our:

- Affordable
- International Accredited
- Time Effective
- Unique and Powerful Course!

You will get everything you were looking for in our Course, and the best part is: “You will have the opportunity to Master your Life Coaching & Neuro Linguistic Programming Basics, Theory, Knowledge, Practical Techniques and Fundamentals in your own time”

The subject on Life Coaching and Neuro Linguistic Programming is really big, and I think you will agree that it is impossible to fully master these subjects in only a few days. Because of this reason, so many people had to go for “refreshers,” and even I had to attend a few refresher courses to fully grasp the power of Life Coaching and Neuro Linguistic Programming. The unfortunate part is that too little people really have time, and therefore, end up never mastering the subjects!!!

With our Improved Time Saving Course Structure, we could include much more than what you will find in ANY other Training Institute. We also included a lot of useful Neuro Linguistic Programming processes, specifically designed for Life Coaching. Some of this advanced material you will only find in the Master’s Certification Programs of much known Life Coaching or NLP Institutes in South Africa.

“We want you to be a Master and Leader in Transforming Lives from the beginning!”

Our Master Life Coach Training Course is beyond any normal, NLP and Life Coaching master’s course. It is unique and much more advanced. It will only be available for selective coaches and practitioners who truly mastered their live skills at the first level!!!

In total, the new Transformation Coaching DVD Pre/Home Study Course 2.0 consists of pure straight to the point video content that will teach you all the theory and the fundamentals at your own leisure, from home. (To deliver this amount of information in a Live Training will take me 3 Days) Now you can sit in the comfort of your private home and go through it, at your own pace and really absorb all of this powerful information in an easy to understand format, delivered in small bite-size chunks. As you are going through this life-changing information, you will start to notice how your thinking patterns, start to change for the better. You will gain a more positive outcome orientated view of life and yourself. You will also gain the skills to: Read people better; understand them better and become a great communicator so you can get what you want a lot faster and therefore, help other people in getting their desired outcome. You will in addition learn 10 very powerful techniques, which you can utilise to get any person that you meet to like, trust and associate with you, under 5 minutes. If you really caught on to what I have just said, you will understand the power that you will gain with these techniques in any type of communication, relationships, at work, at home, in your social life and as a Life Coach.

The Transformation Life Coach Training Pre/Home Study Manual 2.0 consists of 283 A4 pages. Now, I know some of you might think to yourself "hey that is too many pages to study at home," but the good news is that you do not have to read or study them at all. I am just going to ask you to read a bit here and there in the manual. Almost all the information in the Pre/Home Study Training Manual will be handled on the DVD's. So relax, and know that nearly all of your Pre-Study work will be watched on the DVD's! The manuals are there for reference with all the detail of each subject, after the Advanced Practical Training when you wish to Master it through reading. I also know that there are people that would rather choose to read only, and for them, everything is in the manual, which will also help them to be fully prepared for the Advanced Practical Training.

You are about to get all of this now, in a New and Improved totally Transformed Powerful Accelerated Learning Video Format, that is scientifically proven to boost retention of the information by up to 90% and give you much faster and dramatic results in a short period of time, than what the previous DVD Pre/Home Study Course has done. Now don't get me wrong here, the preceding DVD Pre/Home Study Course was great, and we have been improving on it for the last four years, and many people got phenomenal results by applying the information on it at home; however, the new one is way more powerful.

To tell you the truth, we like to strive for excellence and therefore, want to be the best market leaders in what we do. It was time for a radical new approach, and over the past 2 years, we have been studying the most Advanced Accelerated Learning Processes in the world and included all of them into our new Transformation Coaching DVD Pre/Home Study Course 2.0. We now utilise all the major learning styles (Visual, Auditory and Kinaesthetic) and every subject gets explained technically, theoretically, practically and also in a metaphor, which, by the way, is the most powerful way to teach any new concept. With every subject, there will be various pictures and animation that will help you to understand the whole idea and concepts. (Remember a picture speaks a thousand words). These pictures/animations are graphically illustrated picture/animations, were specifically designed for us to explain each subject.

Over the years, I have spent over a million rand on my own development, and I can tell you from all the DVD Pre/Home Study Courses that I have bought internationally...nothing comes close to the quality of our new Transformation Coaching DVD Pre/Home Study Course 2.0. We really went out of our way to create the best.

You NOW, have the luxury of your own environment and time to go through and Pre-Study all the Basics, Theory and Fundamentals of Life Coaching and Neuro Linguistic Programming. This will lay your Foundation for your Advanced Practical Training, where you will learn the Transformation Coaching System™, which is up to date the most powerful, life-changing coaching system in the world.

For more detail of what will be covered in the Transformation Coaching DVD Pre/Home Study Course 2.0, please refer to the Course Layout attached to this email.

STEP 2 – The Advanced Practical Training & Certification

Burk and Isobel Thank You!! You both have changed my Life! I came in here thinking I was just going to learn how to talk to people, but you have shown me a whole new way of life! What I have gained in this training is priceless, and I will take it with me wherever I go! I will live it, apply it and share it with an enthusiasm and vibrancy that which I have discovered in this training! For me, I have grown tremendously in the last week! I am a new person radiating from inside out! Thank you, thank you and thank you! Love and light to you both!

Razia Shaikh

During the Advanced Practical Training, you are mainly going to learn and apply all our Transformation Coaching Techniques and Life Coaching Processes. Here you are going to work through our thoroughly laid-out Transformation Coaching System™ step-by-step. This enables you to fully experience and understand the methodology of our Coaching System. You will experience the results of each technique and coaching process, first hand.

“First as the Coach, applying the techniques, and then as the Client receiving it.”

This is of utmost importance if you want to start coaching immediately and a fundamental part of our Certification.

“According to our beliefs, a Transformation Life Coach must be congruent in every aspect of his or her life. A Transformation Life Coach is an example to other people. Therefore, we strongly suggest that one should first master his or her own life before one can go into the world and claim to change or transform the lives of other people. People will only stream to you for help if they can see or sense that your life is aligned with your coaching and preaching. (Don’t think you can fool people by just learning everything from paper or theory. A Transformation Life Coach is someone who display that they have Mastered Life and can speak from Experience. You cannot be a Congruent Coach without going through the experiences yourself.) To give you this advantage above the other Training Institutes, we give you the opportunity to participate in all the Transformation Coaching Techniques and Life Coaching Processes yourself and therefore, resolves all your Mental Baggage, Emotional Baggage and all your Limitations that are still holding you back. I promise you that most of it; you are totally unaware of, because most of it are located at a Subconscious level.”

P.S. The paragraph above can in no way describe what you will be learning and experiencing during the training. To get a better idea and a more in-depth understanding, READ the Course Layout Attached to the email.

Since Life Coaching and Neuro Linguistic Programming are much more than theory and information, we structured the advanced practical training part that is necessary for Learning, Practicing and Experiencing our Transformation Coaching System™ in only a five Day, Intensive Practical Training. Once you are certified, you will have the opportunity to join our Transformation Coaching Master Mind Group, to help motivate, inspire and coach you to set up your coaching practice and to assist you with any new questions that arise as you start coaching. Every single coach needs his or her own coach, and the Master Mind Group will give you that opportunity.

“To get certified, it is compulsory to attend our Advanced Practical Training.”

We will always make sure that this five days are falling over a weekend, from Wednesday to a Sunday, so that you actually only take three days leave.

In the Advanced Practical Training, you will receive your Step-by-Step Transformation Coaching System Manual where we will teach you our “TRANSFORMATION COACHING SYSTEM™” that will totally enable you as a Life Coach, Transformation Coach and NLP Practitioner to transform, help and guide anyone with almost every imaginable situation or problem.

“In our TRANSFORMATION COACHING SYSTEM™ we compiled all the processes, tools and techniques in an orderly step-by-step System, so that you can easily and effortlessly be able to immediately start coaching. You will have all the confidence to guarantee results, by just following the TRANSFORMATION COACHING SYSTEM™ as it is laid out in your manual!”

To learn more about what you will be learning in the Transformation Coaching System™, please refer to the “Course Layout” that is also attached to the email we send you.

“Indescribable!! Burk and Isobel, you have taken me through my deepest, darkest journey – one I have evaded for 45 years. I came to learn how to help others...and found myself instead! How liberating to find forgiveness, understanding and Love!! With your skill, knowledge, love and discipline, I can walk onto a new "Whole" Time-line...Free of the emotional baggage that intoxicated and robbed me for all my life. I am immensely grateful, blessed, inspired to share this experience as a Life Coach for the Greater Good!! My New, Best Life has just begun!!"

Elsabe Veldman

Now, I can honestly say that there is no other training company that can in the first place do what we can do with our "Transformation Coaching System™" in such a short period of time with lasting results. The way we see it is that the world needs more Coaches equipped with our "Transformation Coaching System™" to help more people out there that are depressed, living with low self-esteem, having anger issues, having any kind of emotional issues, anxiety disorder, not believing in themselves, relationship problems, teenager problems, financial problems and the list can go on and on... You see Isobel and I cannot change the world on our own, and we want to empower as many coaches as possible with our "Transformation Coaching System™". We can only then make a massive change in this world.
